CSCP Progress Report (April. 2015)

Publications:

Presentations:

A. Platform

18. Ebraheem, A., Colella, B., Green, RE., Goswami, R., Tator, CH., and Tartaglia, MC. (Jan 2015). Investigating the Role of Vascular Disease and White Matter Hyperintensities on MRI in Former

B. Poster

7. Tator, CH., & Davis, H. Post-Concussion Syndrome is a Major Problem for many Athletes. Canadian Academy of Sport and Exercise Medicine, Quebec City, June 18-21, 2014,

Grants:

1. Physician’s Service Incorporated Foundation (PSI): $170,000 Grant for Post-Concussion Syndrome in Professional Athletes: A Multidisciplinary Study

2. Ontario Brain Institute (OBI): $100,000 grant for Pilot Project on Imaging of Concussion: Multisite Study

3. Weston Foundation: $150,000 grant for Tau Ligand for the Diagnosis of Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy in Retired CFL Athletes Study

4. Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR): $1,065,728 Grant for NeuroCare’ as an Innovation in Intervention: A Neuropsychological Approach to Determine Readiness for Return to Activity